Talent Management

Talent management is crucial to the success of any organisation. Organisations need talented employees to ensure the delivery of long term competitive advantage through their people.

At Stairway we can help you identify how to attract, identify, develop and retain skilled individuals We provide consultancy and workshops based on best practice in these areas.

We use the AIDeR approach to help businesses produce a comprehensive talent management structure.

Consultancy in Talent Management

At Stairway we offer consultancy in all aspects of Talent Management. This includes how to:

- Design and facilitate leadership potential development centres and assessment centres
- Evaluate and develop performance management systems
- Design and implement coaching and mentoring programmes.

We have helped a wide range of organisations to develop their talent. Here is an overview of the successful talent management programme that we developed for William Hill.
